Qqqqqqqq Numb. 5348

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, December 11. 1718.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Dec. 16.

Naples, November 22.

THE Transport design'd for Sicily set Sail on Tuesday last, under the Convoy of two Men of War of Sir George Byng's Squadron. On Wednesday two Gallies of our Squadron arrived from Tropea, with the Officers and Soldiers of the Enemy who were taken Prisoners; and brought in with them a Spanish Pink which they took, with Dispatches and a large Sum of Money on board, for the Spanish Camp. Two large Tartanes well arm'd, are gone to cruize in the Seas of Calabria and Sicily. The 17 Transport-ships which were arriv'd at Leghorn from Genoa with General Wachtendonck, are under Sail from Baya to Melazzo, where 'tis not doubted the rest of that Convoy is arriv'd; and we hear that Place continues to defend itself with great Bravery against the Hostilities of the Spaniards.

Rome, Nov. 18. On Monday in the Evening the Chevalier de St. George arrived here incognito, and took up his Lodgings in the Palace of Cardinal Gualtieri, and was complimented on the Part of the Pope, and several great Men. On Wednesday he had private Audience of his Holiness, who received him with a Fatherly Tenderness.

Rome, Nov. 26. The Chevalier de St. George is still here in the Palace of Cardinal Gualtieri, who is sick of the Gout at Orvieto, which has hinder'd him coming hither. 'Tis said an Order is come from the Court of France to the Cardinals De la Tremouille, Gualtieri, and Ottoboni, to hold no Correspondence with the Chevalier de St. George, by reason that he is consider'd here as King of England; and in case of offending therein, the Abbies they possess in France shall be sequestred into the King's Hands.

Leghorne, Nov. 18. Some Ships come from Reggio assure that the Spaniards had abandon'd their Retrenchments near Melazzo, and were retir'd to Castro Reale, upon the Advice of the Arrival of Reinforcements to the Imperialists. Whereof we expect the Confirmation.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Dec. 9.

Vienna, Nov. 26. The Duke of Savoy has sent back hither the Express with the Quadruple Alliance sign'd and ratified by him; and it is thereupon not doubted that the Marquis de St. Thomas his prime Minister who is still here, will take upon him the Character of Minister of the King of Sardignia by Virtue of the Treaty, that Kingdom being given him by it; and that he will in that Quality make a Publick Entry. Altho' there has been a long Silence in what was formerly spoken concerning a Marriage between the Prince of Piedmont and one of the Josephan Archduchesses, it begins now to be strongly talk'd; the more because it is perceiv'd that the Treaties of Marriage with the Electoral Princes of Bavaria and Saxony are either quite broke off, or at least at a Stand. 'Tis said also, that the Electoral Prince of Saxony has Orders to return to Dresden, as soon as the King his Father is return'd from Poland. But all this is very uncertain, for others affirm that both the Archduchesses will speedily be married. The Saxon Field Marshal Count Fleming, makes pressing Instances at our Court, that besides the Imperial Troops which are already on the Frontiers of Poland, 30000 more may be sent thither; but it is not very likely he will obtain his Request. In the mean time we have Advice, that the Russian Minister in Poland, begins to talk in a softer Style; and it looks as if the Minister of that Nation who is here, endeavours to cultivate a better Understanding between his Court and ours, than has been of late.

The Regent of France having contracted with the Emperour to pay a Subsidy of 160000 German Florins per Month towards the Expence of the War against Spain, and that the Emperour shall send an Agent to Paris to receive it; his Imperial Majesty has accordingly appointed a Gentleman named M. Bossard to go thither for that purpose, who will set out next Week.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 13.

Paris, Dec. 5. We have certain Advice, that the late Duke of Ormond had been sent by the Pretender to Madrid, to endeavour to engage that Court openly to support his Interest in the present Conjuncture; but we are assur'd he would not charge himself with that Commission, but upon the Condition, that in case he succeeded, the Pretender should put away from him the late Earl of Mar, and give him no further Access to his Council; which 'tis said the Pretender is well enough dispos'd to, not being able longer to bear the haughty Manner which that Lord uses towards all the English that are of his Party, and who are extreamly incens'd at it, as are also the Roman Catholicks of the Court of St. Germains, and the Irish, among whom they have named General Dillon, who has been so far provok'd, that he has ask'd Leave to go to his Post in Dauphine, not being willing to attend the Affairs of the Pretender here any longer; and General Hamilton has had such a Quarrel with him, that he, with Mr. Lesley, another Scotch Man, rail publickly at him here. The Count de Charolois, who has been travelling in Foreign Countries a Year and half, is expected very suddenly at Court; and 'tis not doubted but he will be Placed in some Post suitable to his Birth.

Paris, Dec. 14. 'We talk of nothing here but 'the Conspiracy ag[illegible] 'All the World agree that the Mines of the Con- 'spirators were ready to spring, and that the Effect 'of them could be no other than Calamity to the 'Kingdom. Many Persons of Consideration have 'been already committed to the Bastille upon this 'Occasion, among the rest M. de Pampadour, and 'the Commander of the Hussars, who 'tis said attempted to stab himself when he was arrested 'and sent to Prison, perhaps thro' Remorse of 'Conscience for his Ingratitude to the Duke 'Regent, who had granted him a Pension but 'a little while before, which the more aggravates his Crime. Orders are given for 'Conducting the Prince de Cellamare to the 'Frontiers of Spain, by a Gentleman in Ordinary 'of the King's, accompanied by a certain Number of Guards. And all the Pieces that were found 'with the two Letters of that Ambassadour will 'be printed.

The pleasant Odoriferous Tincture for the Breath, Teeth and Gums, a few Drops of which instantly makes the most offensive Breath smell incomparably fine and charming, and in a very short time perfectly cures, so that a disagreeable Breath will never return; it certainly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth extreamly white, clean and beautiful at once using, infallibly preserves them from decaying, and those a little decay'd, from becoming worse; absolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, the never so inveterate, causing the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth again, when almost eaten quite away, and infallibly fastens loose Teeth to Admiration. In a word, for most delicately performing and quickly curing all offensive Breath, for immediately making the blackest Teeth most excellently white, certainly fastening them when loose, effectually preserving them from rotting or decaying, and assuredly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its equal in the World. To be sold only at Mr. Rainford's Toy and Spectacle Shop, at the Great Golden Pair of Spectacles against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, near Arundel Street. Price 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Gout absolutely cured so as never to return again, by a Physical Specifick Secret to be taken in Drops only with a Glass of Wine, which perfectly takes off, and infallibly cures the most racking Fit on the spot, instantly taking away the dismal Torture, and establishing in its stead perfect and almost miraculous Ease, and that without any Disturbance to Nature; or the least Danger of recalling the Morbifick Matter from the extream Parts to the Head, Stomach, Lungs or Bowels, but on the contrary effectually cures those no less Parts often being attack'd by the Gout, and may be really depended upon not only certainly and immediately to take off the most excruciating Fit, but also assuredly to prevent its ever returning again, more effectually than the Peruvian Bark does Agues. Is sold only at the Two Blue Posts in Maydon-Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.
